

The below policy advice is only available if your trip and/or insurance was purchased prior to the 5th March 2020.

If you've made a Flybe flight only booking

Whether you're due to travel soon or you're abroad already, bookings may be covered by the Scheduled airline failure section of cover. This cover only becomes applicable where you can't get a refund elsewhere.

Our policy covers two different scenarios:

If you're in Ireland and you haven't travelled yet, we'll pay for the cost of your unused ticket if you can't get a refund elsewhere (for example, from your credit card provider or PayPal). Please note that cover is for your original flight only, not replacement costs. Elements of your trip not related to the Flybe flight such as accommodation, car hire or excursions will not be covered under your policy.

If you're abroad right now, we'll pay for the cost of a one-way ticket to get you home as long as the return journey is for the same class as the original ticket. This means that if you flew economy we will only consider a new economy flight.

In both situations, you'll need to provide proof that you can't get a refund and were not offered a replacement flight.

If your Flybe flight was paid for using a credit card

Flights paid for by credit card may be protected. Please contact your credit card company in the first instance as they may be able to refund your costs.

If your Flybe flight was booked through an airline ticket agent

You may have paid for specific SAFI protection. You will need to check your booking paperwork to see what you are entitled to reclaim. Please contact the ticketing agent if the process for how to make a claim is not clear from the documentation.

If your Flybe flight is a codeshare

For example, if you booked a flight through an airline such as Virgin Atlantic or Singapore Air that has a partnership with Flybe, please contact that airline initially as they may be able to help you.

If your Flybe flight was part of a package booking

Please contact your Tour Operator in the first instance as they may be able to assist you.

If you have not yet travelled but want to rearrange your trip dates as you have received a refund of your Flybe costs

Provided you're not making a claim, we can transfer your policy to cover the new trip as long as it's within three months of your original departure date, is for the same or no longer duration, and is to the same geographical area.

How to make a claim

If you are unable to obtain a refund of your Flybe costs from elsewhere and you need to make a claim, you can do so by logging into your policy or by contacting the Claims Department on 091 545 907.
